no way a disappointment to those who heard him.

Dr. Keigwin and his congregation are certainly to be congratulated on the completion of their church building, and especially because they are entirely out of debt.

The Methodists did not hold services Sunday, but joined the Presbyterians in the dedication exercises.

In the evening Rev. Ferran preached again to a good congregation.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner:
"When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

TAMPA BAY HOTEL.

Ideal Stopping Place for Visitors to the Fair.

Visitors to Tampa during the coming State Fair will find no place to stop equal to the magnificent Tampa Bay Hotel. It is famed over the whole United States as one of the finest hotels to be found anywhere in the world. Its managers have during the past summer expended $25,000 on its improvement, and it is prepared to afford the most delightful accommodation to the crowds who will attend the Fair.

Manager Lauber tells us that rates have been fixed during the Fair as low as 3.00 per day for first-rate room and board; but, of course, more luxurious apartments may be secured at higher prices. A visit to Tampa would hardly be a success unless you patronize this palatial hostelry; and he is a wise man who will at once engage a room either by wire or writing to Manager Lauber.

Sleeping Car Service.

Effective November 12 Jacksonville to Ft. Myers sleeping car line will be inaugurated on trains 21 and 82, leaving Jacksonville at 9:00 p. m., returning leave Ft. Myers at 2:45 p. m.

THE HOTEL BEAUTIFUL.

Visitors to Fair Received at Tampa's Unrivalled Hostelry at Re- duced Rates.

"A word to the wise is sufficient," and those who learn that the special rate of $3.00 per day and up will prevail at the beautiful Tampa Bay Hotel during the Florida State Fair, will not be slow in telegraphing or writing to Manager Lauber to secure rooms and board.

This really palatial house of entertainment is now prepared to accommodate any number of patrons in a way never before realized. During the summer its already luxurious interior has been enhanced in comfort and splendor by the expenditure of a large sum of money—$25,000, it is said—while the table service and cooking are unsurpassed anywhere in the South. The Fair will be the greatest and most extensive ever held on the Peninsula, but to make its enjoyment perfect, one must necessarily sojourn at this hotel, where every detail that goes to make life pleasant will be scrupulously looked after.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by all druggists.

Ordinance No. 41.

An Ordinance to amend an Ordinance entitled "Animals Running at Large."

Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council, of the City of Arcadia, Florida, in session convened:

Section 1. That section one of Ordinance fifteen, of the Ordinances of the City of Arcadia, entitled "Animals Running at Large," as passed on the 18th day of August, A. D. 1905, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any horse, mule, ass, cow, calf, bull, ox, hog or pig to run at large within the incorporate limits of the City of Arcadia, provided however that milchcows and suckling calves of such milchcows, kept for use by the residents of the City of Arcadia, shall be permitted to run at large.

Passed in regular session this the 5th day of November, A. D. 1906. PERRY C. BROWN, President of City Council.

I certify that the foregoing Ordinance was duly passed by the City Council in regular session on the date above mentioned, and the same is hereby presented to the Mayor of said City as provided by section twelve of the City Charter.

Witness my hand and official seal on this the 8th day of Nov. A. D. 1906.

(SEAL) FRANK HORTON,
City Clerk.
Approved this 8th day of Nov., A. D. 1906.
W. M. PLATT, Mayor.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation.

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly reedited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is substantially adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial verdict as the highest authority in lexicography of the English language; and that in the future it will be the source of constant reference.
